

The airwaves are public - and should be controlled by the public, not 5 people on the commission and not by powerful corporations and individuals. Find a process that includes citizens in the debate - do not allow the vote on June 2 to occur or to be final.